22	I feel we must approach each other with a nonjudgmental view and a general positive regard for each other. Judgment and hate breed more social issues such as bullying and addiction. Those of us who fit that profile are the ones left holding the bag to clean up our own lives. That road and journey to recovery is oftentimes the hardest thing ever attempted in one's life. Recovering from mental illness also is a life long journey. No Get Out Of Jail free cards when it comes to these issues. I always go back to what my late grandmother would say which was "Treat others with the kindness and respect that you would want them to show you." Prejudice, betrayal, racism, bias, gossip, bullying, etc. have no place in our church. That is not what we are about. All-inclusive means just that, we include everyone just as Jesus did, just as they are.	1/2/2023 1:36 PM exercises are easy to learn and can be taught to children in a way that is interesting and even fun to use. For a relatively small investment offered with great love, I believe these skills can help heal and build trust for these children. In a world where so many doors are closed, SE is something children CAN DO any time, anywhere and IMMEDIATELY experience the benefits. Very empowering! This project would also offer a safe community for these children as our congregation implements other ways to improve the lives of these precious youngsters.

46	As a person that values acts, I'd suggest that developing opportunities for youth to engage with others, adults and peers, in settings where they feel safe but at the same time are challenged in some way so that the common challenges can help form bonds with one another and provide an experience with love in the way that Jesus teaches us	12/22/2022 12:13 PM

63	Continue to offer Christ-centered educational opportunities at church for our children, Buddy Readers for our local public schools, and scholarship opportunities to children at our missions throughout the world. Also, we should advocate for universal health care, healthy meals for all children, more state funding of urban public schools, more counseling to address childhood trauma, behaviors or alternatives to reduce violence, better pay for teachers, and the recruitment of more minority teachers, and more gun control and background checks.	12/19/2022 5:04 PM

76	By teaching others what is right	12/18/2022 12:45 PM
77	If/when Spiritus realizes that it is underutilizing the gifts and talents of its congregation, it should find that it possesses far greater capacity - knowledge, will, and resources - to go out into the community to be more welcoming, truly inclusive, and to be of greater service (meaningful and useful) so that all children, regardless of the happenstance of their birth and social location, can flourish and thrive, without disruption or hindrance.	12/18/2022 12:31 PM
78	Continue doing what we are doing, but always with a willingness to change.	12/18/2022 12:09 PM
79	We are open to many ideas and they will be discussed.	12/18/2022 11:31 AM
80	We have a lot of experience with outreach ministries to marginalized communities with many parishioners involved in leadership and volunteering and are working hard on strengthening diversity and understanding of one another in our church. We have not had as many ministries that serve children specifically, so it is an area for our growth. We can be even better by doing this in partnership with a community of congregations working on the needs of children together!	12/18/2022 11:24 AM
81	By our dedication to social justice, we become a part of the bigger picture to assist marginalized children and adults.	12/18/2022 11:22 AM
82	We need to find a way to get more marginalized children involved in the church and get more money to support programs for marginalized children	12/18/2022 11:13 AM

89	While this is an important question, I don't have an idea of it can be accomplished.	12/16/2022 8:54 AM

93	Because since 1976, thanks to our pastor, Fr. Jim Callan, who set the tone for our congregation to work for justice and not just talk about it. our church's reputation for justice has expanded over the years to ordaining women to the priesthood, welcoming and supporting the Gay community, welcoming everyone to the communion table, and working to end systemic racism with our lead pastor, Rev. Myra Brown, leading the charge in our church and the Rochester community.	12/15/2022 10:35 AM

96	By continuing to educate our congregation about current events in light of the Gospel and encouraging community involvement	12/14/2022 10:19 PM
97	Our church can deepen its local connections even further to become more aware of the specific needs of the children in our area, then work with local leaders to implement programs that will help them, using volunteer efforts of members of the congregation.	12/14/2022 9:50 PM
98	Having been raised Roman Catholic, most of the work we did as a parish was focused on addressing surface level problems. I became disillusioned with my childhood congregation when it started to feel like most of the work we were doing centered the feelings of parishioners, rather than the lives of others in our community. Spiritus, however, is committed to the community as a whole. I think we can use our congregation and our leaders, as well as input from our greater community, to identify and address the most pressing issues facing marginalized children, and take measures to both improve the lives of those children in the present, and tackle the systemic injustices that marginalize these children in the first place.	12/14/2022 12:14 PM

120	Summer and yearlong youth group events could involve reaching out to groups of marginalized children in our community (summer school programs, camps, etc) to support them. There could be a larger emphasis on social/political concerns and students could choose a focus for the year, considering how they can make a difference.	12/4/2022 11:15 AM
121	More emphasis on direct support for marginalized youth, more emphasis on celebrating the gifts that youth bring to our church and community, and more opportunities to advocate for better government services for youth.	12/4/2022 6:24 AM
122	Spiritus excels at reaching out to/improving the lives of marginalized adults through their multiple outreach programs, as well as has done remarkable work with teenage men in particular thanks to the work of Eileen Hurley. We have one program -- Buddy Readers -- that has grown to include over 70 volunteers -- they pair up one-on-one with at-risk children in 3 different elementary schools working on literacy skills. So the commitment to the marginalized is there. I think expanding Spiritus' work with children in particular could energize parishioners who have not yet become engaged, as well as draw in new (and younger) members to help do "the work," in whatever form it takes. Long story short; I think the interest in and the talent for working on the vision is there -- I do think we need some help defining what the structure would be to help produce the best outcomes. Am thrilled we are working with the CDF to develop just such a structure/template to move forward.	12/3/2022 12:16 PM

Q35 I think we must change as a church if we are to be relevant to newer generations.

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	I feel our church already does a great job	1/19/2023 6:05 PM
2	Provide parenting classes. support long terms relationships. Retreats. Strengthen friendships.	1/19/2023 5:51 PM
3	Offer ways that youth can give to the world with their talent. Help them understand that they have skills and talent.	1/17/2023 5:32 PM
4	Our specific church is leading the way. The Catholic Church in which I was raised has lost its way and could learn so much from Spiritus Christi	1/12/2023 8:06 AM
5	Not necessarily change, but some how give the younger generation a larger voice. You would be pleasantly surprised at the wisdom they can share. The problem is, we've got to get them to feel comfortable when they voice opinions. Not dismiss their insight.	1/11/2023 9:16 AM
6	Be a safe supportive place for listening to the "big life questions" that youth have. Too often they have no place to go to get the challenging thoughtful attention they deserve. Be an example of Christianity as the counter cultural force it should be.	1/10/2023 2:35 PM
7	I think we are always open to new ideas and continue groth	1/9/2023 10:34 PM

10	We must always be changing and growing	1/8/2023 10:31 PM
11	Yes, I am very concerned that so many younger persons no longer consider church membership to be of value. I recognize that what met my needs and interests with respect to faith practices may not be what meets the needs of younger folks. We really need to learn and understand how to reach and connect with younger persons.	1/8/2023 6:40 PM
12	I agree and it needs to be done in keeping with Spiritus values.	1/8/2023 1:36 PM
13	Yes	1/8/2023 11:48 AM
14	More churches need to be like Spiritus	1/8/2023 11:41 AM
15	Polling newer members of the congregation about what attracts them would be useful (maybe this survey is doing just that). Adding tales about distractions (e.g., social media) to homilies is helpful.	1/8/2023 11:12 AM
16	I think we are on the right track! I feel we have opened the church to younger leaders and fresh ideas.	1/6/2023 3:51 PM
17	Change? Refers to what? The Gospel is the same. We shouldn't be more tolerable to wrong doings past generations would not have been as tolerable to ie. unmarried living together, divorce for the wrong reasons, lack of church attendance.	1/5/2023 7:49 PM
18	Continuous change is essential for all newer generations! We must change to stay relevant	1/5/2023 8:21 AM
19	I think we are doing those efforts now	1/5/2023 8:06 AM
20	Our church encourages this growth	1/5/2023 6:22 AM
21	We have to relevant to the younger generation but need to balance with the older members.	1/4/2023 10:32 PM
22	By teaching that God is loving and that as a church we can impact our community, I think that we are already doing a fantastic job.	1/3/2023 5:13 PM security within the church that may not be provided at home, school, work or wherever. It is tough world to navigate in these chaotic times and some choose to isolate to get away from it and breathe. It is safer. Encouraging a spiritual one to one connection with God can help alleviate the unbearable loneliness and depression that can and does develop with anyone who feels that they just don't fit in anywhere. You are never alone if God is in your heart.

24	I do agree as there is always a paucity of young people at every mass I attend.	1/2/2023 11:29 AM
25	Yes, this is true	12/29/2022 6:17 PM

27	No.	12/29/2022 3:27 PM
28	The newer generations are drawn to "spirituality" in the form of zen Buddhism, yoga, mindfulness, and meditation but NOT to churches...we need to ask why?	12/29/2022 9:49 AM
29	Keep the "word" relevant and understandable for all.	12/29/2022 7:53 AM
30	Agree	12/28/2022 11:34 PM
31	maybe, just not sure what newer generations value in their relationship with a church	12/28/2022 9:22 PM

36	I agree and believe that Spiritus Christi is progressively doing this.	12/28/2022 1:32 PM

38	I believe we currently do an amazing job of maintaining relevance with the current societal needs but I also believe we need to encourage young families to come and give us a look and ensure we have young people engaged at every decision making level we have...	12/26/2022 2:11 PM
39	Provide opportunities for interaction and engagement of young people with the community, there's quite a bit planned for children and older adults but there's a big gap of opportunities to engage and involve young adults with both each other and the community. This is a group that could do a lot of good if they were organized and given an opportunity to engage with one another in a meaningful way.	12/26/2022 10:48 AM
40	I think Spiritus does change with the times. The livestream of masses etc. Reaches more people.	12/25/2022 11:22 AM
41	We have the power to be relevant to newer generations, we just have to reach out to young people to draw them in. Once they get here, they'll probably like it.	12/23/2022 12:02 PM
42	Our church is doing an excellent job of being relevant to newer generations!	12/23/2022 7:58 AM
43	Important to understand what newer generations are seeking in a church and in their spiritual life.	12/22/2022 7:19 PM
44	I agree	12/22/2022 12:13 PM
45	no	12/22/2022 10:08 AM
46	Agree	12/22/2022 7:56 AM
47	I think it is true that many young people are not attracted to any kind of organized religious experience. My own adult children are not involved, and are not raising their children in a faith tradition. I am not sure what the answer is or could be.	12/22/2022 7:21 AM
48	Having more discussions after church is a healthy way for members to have more input and feel closer to others within the church.	12/21/2022 7:07 PM

50	Spiritus Christi is a local and even national leader for Catholics who want to live out their values for justice and following in Christ's footsteps. As we continue to listen to what is needed by those who suffer the results of structural violence of racism, poverty, etc, we will remain relevant to future generations.	12/21/2022 6:32 PM
51	The Catholic Church? Yes. Spiritus Christi? No.	12/20/2022 7:05 PM
52	I think we need to do more to draw in younger and diverse families. The congregation has grown older, and I don't see the numbers of young families we had years ago. The pandemic definitely caused some folks to get out of the habit of church attendance, but we need to find way to bring families back to us.	12/20/2022 10:15 AM

65	N/a	12/18/2022 12:45 PM
66	We must become truly welcoming and inclusive to reflect the greater community. We can't simply say we are when, on its face, our church is majority white, retired/near-retirement, suburban, and solvent. Spiritus also provides the bare bones minimum in adult education (1 part-time lay minister), bible study (none, that I am aware of), guided discernment of spiritual gifts and vocation (none), and fellowship opportunities to connect and community-build outside of scheduled worship services. In addition, rather than meeting every decade to chart its course, the church should be meeting on an annual basis, not just for 3 hours, but for a full day, at the very least, to determine how responsive the church has been in the past year - what worked, what didn't - and how to be more responsive to the rapidly changing needs of a diverse community in the next calendar year.	12/18/2022 12:31 PM
67	I don't feel that we need to change. We are accepting to all.	12/18/2022 11:31 AM
68	Everything must always be changing. I think we can do more to get younger generations involved in leadership roles, but we have been making good progress. Let the younger generations lead the way!	12/18/2022 11:24 AM
69	Continue to strive to attract young people and families from all parts of our community. Place more emphasis on spreading the word of our church in the community.	12/18/2022 11:13 AM

75	Jesus is always relevant. It's how you describe and tell Jesus' story... who He is, what He calls us to do and be. He calls us to be persistent in our work for justice. Newer generations need to be reminded that to make a difference in our church and in society that it isn't about what the church can do for them, but what they can do for the church and society. Learn who Jesus is and then just do it.	12/15/2022 10:35 AM

78	I believe our church is consistently making the changes they need to be relevent, in every facet of both worship and ministry. The religious education program and youth groups work to give the children they serve a modern understanding of religion and their place in our religious tradition. The worship service and the livestreams make the word more accessible than ever before, without compromising on how challenging religion can be. And the service work done by our church serves to address the systemic issues in our world, giving members the opportunity to engage themselves in that work.	12/14/2022 12:14 PM

98	Get out of the church building, work with other churches and faith communities, be a hospitable place for youth to gather, provide specific groups or activities that deal with youth violence, school issues, mental health, youth with little family support, etc.	12/4/2022 6:24 AM
99	To remain relevant to newer generations our parish needs to become more diverse, more family/young parent-focused (do better follow-up starting right at Baptism) and we also need to keep moving younger people into leadership positions (which Spiritus has been making great	12/3/2022 12:16 PM strides on (due to a lot of effort from our lead Pastor, roughly 50% of their main team is under 40). Spiritus had a younger person in a top leadership role who made big changes in updating the technology, presentation of materials, music, etc. -- losing him to graduate school was a big blow. We need more young "visionaries" like him to help move the church into its next phase. One of his pieces of feedback was young people don't like the formality of all the rituals of the church and as a result a Young Adult Mass was created with young preachers and musicians -- it was successful for awhile but then has faltered for lack of new leadership to keep it vibrant -- would be nice to see that reinstated.

93	Our city school district is one of the worst in the nation in the level of poverty in our community is extraordinarily high. I think our church can work to change this by involving itself in more than a buddy readers program and having one person as an outreach to the youth in jail. More programs, more skilled staff who work with you, more outreach, direct involvement with the school district and the anti-poverty movement would be beneficial. I know we have a pastor who is working with the African-American community and I think we need more than just her and more than just a single focus. A broader reach into the community and more involved by parishioners than sitting in the pews listening is warranted.	12/8/2022 8:30 AM

95	Our church (when first started before becoming Spiritus) started with going out to the community and being welcoming and showing that they care. This is always the 1st step. We are part of the Buddy Reading Program & not sure how to extend that further.	12/8/2022 6:29 AM

99	Welcoming to all children Reaching out to communities with children that are marginalized and offering support	12/4/2022 3:11 PM
100	Summer and yearlong youth group events could involve reaching out to groups of marginalized children in our community (summer school programs, camps, etc) to support them. There could be a larger emphasis on social/political concerns and students could choose a focus for the year, considering how they can make a difference.	12/4/2022 11:16 AM
101	Spiritus excels at working with marginalized adults through its various outreach programs - is part of the church's core values and foundation. The outreach to marginalized children in particular has been happening in our Buddy Readers Ministry, with over 70 volunteers working one-on-one on literacy skills with marginalized children in three city schools. I would like to see this type of work/focus on children expanded, and given our church's commitment to the poor and marginalized, could see this both revitalizing current parishioners as well as attracting new talent to do this work. I also think this kind of focus has great possibilities re: working in collaboration with other congregations, both Christian and interfaith, which would make the effort that much more impactful.	12/3/2022 12:33 PM

Q38 Now that you have spent this time reflecting on the congregation's present situation, think for a bit about your vision for the future of the church. 17	That we incorporate more opportunities for members and non-members alike to gather and brainstorm ways that we can assist our community. More members should be encouraged to head up committees that they are passionate about.	1/3/2023 5:15 PM
18	I can only envision today. Who knows where things will be in 5 years in the future? I do feel that more spirituality and connection with God or an entity greater than oneself, is essential to future growth.	1/2/2023 1:39 PM
19	I hope the future leadership includes Father Jim Callan and his belief in an inclusive church.	1/2/2023 11:32 AM
20	More diverse music. An equal mix of gospel and contemporary Christian. Right now, too much emphasis on Gospel . Too many gender pronouns which isn't reflective of a visionary church.	12/29/2022 6:20 PM
21	I hope to see us grow not just increase numbers. I hope to see us grow because I can see the real impact this parish has had on the community and I can't wait to see more of it.	12/29/2022 5:17 PM
22	That we can continue with our current vision.	12/29/2022 3:30 PM
23	A series of small Christian communities which come together from time to time would be a great start.	12/29/2022 9:51 AM
24	That we continue to grow, flourish and keep Myra and Father Jim.	12/29/2022 7:55 AM
25	I believe that more Progressive Christian churches are needed to promote the tenets of Christianity.	12/29/2022 7:26 AM
26	Continue the same	12/28/2022 11:34 PM
27	I hope we continue on the path we have taken.	12/28/2022 11:30 PM
28	Help RCSD with our education problem for youth in the city....while keeping all the current outreaches which offer excellent opportunity for members to experience God and giving.	12/28/2022 9:24 PM
29	I want to see our church as leading the community on important issues (environmental issue, social justice, etc.)	12/28/2022 9:14 PM
30	That we can offer the space for discernment and the support to children z& your that they need to grow & thrive in our community at large.	12/28/2022 9:03 PM
31	Continue to expand the inclusion of young adults, the future of the church.	12/28/2022 7:46 PM
32	Reach out to the marginalized with housing options. Help empower families to share their homes. resources, gifts in housing and/or caring for immigrants, homeless and the marginalized in the ways they are able.	12/28/2022 7:23 PM
33	Outreach to the 20+ year olds to get them involved inside the congregation and in their local community.	12/28/2022 5:27 PM
34	A vision of inclusiveness of all ethnicity and class of parishioners. As the population ages creating outreach that can help our elders remain in their homes and part of this community.	12/28/2022 1:44 PM
35	I believe strongly that Spiritus Christi Church does an amazing job of forward thinking and staying relevant. Five years from now I would love to see children of all ages involved in all levels of the liturgy to their ability to do so, I would like to see more African Americans as active members of our congregation. I would especially love to see more adaptive resources for people with visual issues. Lastly, I would love to see our own community's marginalized youth benefiting from programs our church helps to develop through this project.	12/27/2022 8:02 AM

39	to keep doing what we're doing, except with greater emphasis on reaching out to young adults and families. If we can email them, call them, advertise more on social media, then we can bring people in, which will help us move into the future.	12/23/2022 12:03 PM
40	I envision our church continuing to grow in diversity. It's amazing how our pastor, priests and congregation as a whole welcome and encourage diversity and folks on the margins and in transition. We could do even more for the homeless in our city and getting more members involved in circumventing climate change! Children need real hope for their future __^__	12/23/2022 8:10 AM
41	We need to strive for a congregation with more races represented, more younger parishioners.	12/22/2022 7:21 PM
42	As a newer member, I don't have much knowledge of the children's programs, but would always welcome more opportunities to engage youth, and trying new things.	12/22/2022 12:18 PM
43	to be around forever	12/22/2022 10:10 AM
44	My vision is that our church will attract more people 20-40. It appears to me that the majority of our membership is over 45	12/22/2022 12:12 AM
45	Continue with ministries.	12/21/2022 7:23 PM
46	Bring more young people in; increase activities that center around getting to know each other better( gifts they bring)to the church and community. Also, more diversity.	12/21/2022 7:10 PM
47	Love all. Be nonjudgmental .. use modern communications. Zoom when in person not possible.	12/21/2022 6:53 PM
48	Only that our church maintains its generous spirit.	12/20/2022 7:29 PM
49	I would love for the church to continue the existing ministries and expand on the ideals on which they were founded, creating new and more ministries of the like.	12/20/2022 7:05 PM
50	Keep doing what we do	12/20/2022 3:26 PM
51	I would like to see our church become more racially and ethnically diverse. Rev. Myra's activism in the community definitely helps to draw more people in. I think it is critically important to nurture and grow our religious ed programs for pre-K, elementary, and junior and senior high youth. The people who are raising families now are the people that will be the backbone of the church in the future. The church can be a great source of support for parents as they raise their kids in this complex and challenging world. We need to work to have parents see us as a key partner to their family in reinforcing the values and ideals they see as important.	12/20/2022 10:19 AM
52	that we see more young people join the church and continue the ministries	12/20/2022 3:04 AM
53	Enlighten the congregation - which is suburban centered - about the institutional structures that allow such high rates of poverty and indifference in the city which has been struggling since 1964 to make constructive and positive change.	12/19/2022 9:50 PM
54	we select a neighborhood and support its development	12/19/2022 5:46 PM
55	To stay Christ-centered by embodying His radical message of love, and active in spreading the Kingdom of God on Earth.	12/19/2022 5:15 PM
56	Continue on its present path and it will thrive. Continue of its acceptance of all people and faiths and backgrounds. Great leaders here, great congregation!	12/19/2022 1:26 PM
57	Reach out to other local groups/organizations to increase opportunities for us to provide more help to our communities' marginalized children.	12/19/2022 12:06 PM
58	Continue to be inclusive.	12/19/2022 9:51 AM
59	I have loved what our church stands for. It is hard to get the youth more involved with so many outside activities. I want to hear a positive word when I am in church with so much divide in this country.	12/19/2022 6:19 AM
60	I love this church. Adding a mission : city kids!!!!	12/19/2022 1:23 AM
61	I hope Spiritus will continue to promote a gospel based focus on social justice. I also hope we will more clearly connect with other congregations that share our beliefs about gospel based social justice. We must avoid becoming insular or self satisfied.	12/18/2022 7:22 PM
62	Increased interactions with other spiritual communities..collaboration with these groups and	12/18/2022 5:12 PM

63	To continue as we are!	12/18/2022 5:08 PM
64	Children are one of the foundations of Spiritus. Continue this priority with a designated plan that expands on the current successes.	12/18/2022 3:38 PM
65	Spiritus. Christi is the church I needed my entire life. God led me here.	12/18/2022 1:52 PM
66	I'd like to see Spiritus be more strategic by developing and implementing a robust program of worship, theological education, and spiritual discernment to raise up and empower parishioners to respond to the call to serve, both the church and the community in which it is a part. I'd like to see Spiritus hire the vital staff necessary to make such an endeavor a fruitful one. In five years, I hope to see that Spiritus has a full and active calendar of weekly offerings and events for parishioners that meet the diverse interests and needs of everyone, no matter where they are in their spiritual/life journey, so that they have the awareness and the will to want and be able to go make a difference in the church and the greater community. If Spiritus actively cultivates the development of its parishioners so that they faithfully heed the call to serve the multitude in meaningful and useful ways, then my hope is that, in turn, the community that is served will enter into Spiritus to be filled with faith, knowledge, and a desire to carry that light back out into the dark places and ends of the earth where God's mercy and grace are most needed.	12/18/2022 1:23 PM
67	I hope the church continues to teach others about what is right and how to give back	12/18/2022 12:46 PM
68	See above.	12/18/2022 12:10 PM
69	To be a place where people feel healed and loved and where they are able to flourish. I want to see all our parishioners participating in the life of the church and sharing their gifts in whatever ways that give them joy. I want to see that joy spill out into the world so that other folks want to join us...making the Kin-dom here on earth.	12/18/2022 11:38 AM
70	I have been distanced from church over the past 2 years due to covid concerns for family member with compromised health. I miss in person participation but appreciate the virtual service. I hope this continues. I am beginning to wish there were more opportunities for small group service projects that senior members of the community could participate in. It would offer a continued connection to our church, perhaps in small group settings. I wish I understood ways to integrate our desire to improve the lives of the impoverished in our community. The problems seem overwhelming and the solutions evasive. Should we be sponsoring a place where the hungry can eat? Should we be offering a place for children to come for help with school work and support? Our city has become an increasingly violent community. Should we be taking a more active roll in advocating for gun control laws?	12/18/2022 11:33 AM
71	I hope we will expand, when possible, our works for social justice, inclusion, acceptance.	12/18/2022 11:24 AM
72	The church will continue to grow in making its vision	12/18/2022 11:19 AM
73	We have the correct message and foundation that will help marginalized children but need more membership especially with younger people and families with young children	12/18/2022 11:15 AM
74	To remain vibrant and continue on its mission	12/18/2022 11:06 AM
75	That everyone is involved in the community- not just coming to church.	12/18/2022 10:52 AM
76	We are instrumental in achieve a majority black voting districts. Explore what these neighborhoods believe they need to flourish.	12/16/2022 10:45 PM
77	It would be wonderful if our church can make a difference in the lives of the children living in poverty in Rochester.	12/16/2022 8:57 AM
78	Continue the social justice work with more emphasis on children. Include them in worship and all aspects of the congregational life.	12/16/2022 12:00 AM
79	I would like to see it continue to grow and reach out to the community.	12/15/2022 6:22 PM
80	That we become more racially diverse	12/15/2022 4:40 PM
81	To continue to work for social justice and peace for all people. Accepting all people.	12/15/2022 1:28 PM
82	As a member of Corpus/Spiritus, I want to ensure that the legacy of the teaching of a loving and accepting Jesus continues as well as a commitment to the poor and acting for peace and	12/15/2022 10:41 AM social justice, and welcoming all continues. We need visionaries and a diversity of thoughts, dreams and hopes working TOGETHER for the future of our church. All sides listening to each other.

83	I would like to find areas that I have a passion to serve.	12/15/2022 8:41 AM
84	I envision a fully activist church that engages communities of color, and is intentional about our support of Black families and children historically impacted by racist systems and structures as well as a dismantling of white cultural identity that we inherited.	12/15/2022 7:32 AM
85	Excitement about young leadership.	12/15/2022 7:26 AM
86	I hope we will continue to be involved with the poor in our community and encouraging members to vote, to support the end of gun violence and to continue taking a stand vs racism, homophobia, antisemitism,etc	12/14/2022 10:22 PM
87	I am very grateful for the increased online presence, as someone who was a member of the church while living overseas for many years and who is now mostly housebound. I wish I could engage more in person, but my health problems prevent me from engaging in volunteer work, and the church's shift away from Covid protocols of collective responsibility to individual responsibility makes in-person attendance at mass unsafe for me. Offering a Covid-safe mass, even just once in a while, would be such a blessing. Regarding online presence: I believe that Spiritus can fill the needs of people all over the world who are looking for this sort of precious and unique community. I hope that in coming years it can take advantage of its online programming and tech support to actively reach out to people outside our area to expand the church.	12/14/2022 10:10 PM
88	My dream for our church is that we increase cohesion within the church, and visibility outside of it. Spiritus has been committed to being a force for good in Rochester for over 20 years. We are extremely involved in the political climate of our city, and my hope is that we can provide further opportunities for that involvement to parishioners.	12/14/2022 12:15 PM
89	keep being a strong presence in the community; make us more visible to the community	12/14/2022 10:13 AM
90	The spirituality and the commitment to each other and the caring and the Love that permeates the Spiritus Christi community is a joy to behold. Most fortunate to have found this community many years ago. I believe SC will change as necessary to be coven in this changing political world. Its arms and heart is wide open.	12/13/2022 10:09 AM
91	Strengthen outreach to the poor, youth and refugees. Stay firm in beliefs about female priests, gay marriage and acceptance of all to communion and the church.	12/12/2022 1:55 PM
92	Since we are a Catholic church, I would like more emphasis on the saints, the Blessed Virgin Mary, inclusion of traditional Catholic songs. Right now, none of this is happening. All of these elements are comforting in this time of recovery from collective trauma. But then again, I am old and this kind of thing probably matters more to me.	12/9/2022 9:38 AM
93	To become more racially and generationally diverse	12/9/2022 2:25 AM
94	Continue strong social outreach.	12/8/2022 6:51 PM
95	Continue to be the presence of Jesus in the 21st century. That by following Jesus' words and actions, we work to be a community that is both inclusive and mission-driven.	12/8/2022 3:19 PM
96	By encouraging more people to get involved in outreaches and projects both in and outside of the church	12/8/2022 12:39 PM
97	More connections with other churches - sharing of resources.	12/8/2022 12:29 PM
98	Greater spiritual practices Yoga, meditation etc	12/8/2022 11:34 AM
99	We need to get people back in our physical church to build connections and a sense of belonging. Livestream does not do that. It is a good patch especially at maintaining a relationship but is too passive to build one. Could we call those who watch and give them an individual member they can connect with?	12/8/2022 10:41 AM
100	In order to maintain the spirituality and health of our church, we need to continue to bring young families into the congregation who will foster the teachings of Christ. We need to educate them as to what those teachings mean and how we can carry those teachings out into the community at large, through work, school, community after school programs, etc.	12/8/2022 10:26 AM

101	Keep going.. I will spread the message to friends and family for more groups to become inclusive. We support other inclusive groups.	12/8/2022 8:57 AM
102	Children must study and practice the new testament, Jesus' message was not only the joy of Christmas, but living with those who are poor, ignored, handicapped. True values of justice without greed are essential to be Christian.	12/8/2022 8:43 AM
103	That we recruit and involve more leaders and that we brought in our vision around the area of youth in our community. That we recruit younger families, younger people, perhaps have our own building that we call Church where people can feel ownership. I see a lack of involvement from members of our parish and a lack of support for some of the programs we currently offer. My desire is that turns around and we energize and enthuse people to participate fully in more than just Sunday morning mass.	12/8/2022 8:30 AM
104	To continue being welcoming, training within for people to advance which I see being done, and the realization that our mission is more than just one person - it is the community working together and being energized. To stay this way, is tough. When I was younger I was more engaged and I see young people being more engaged and families. I believe this is the circle of life.	12/8/2022 6:29 AM
105	To provide small groups connections to feel more connected to the general congregation	12/6/2022 9:35 PM
106	Helping heal hearts and minds in our community.	12/6/2022 6:12 PM
107	Continue to embrace the community. Reaching out to the very needy, sick, disenfranchised. Some how bring "church" to them.	12/6/2022 5:58 PM
108	Stay open; I would love to see younger members train and prepare so that the church may be sustainable to many generations to come	12/6/2022 5:40 PM
109	To stay inclusive. To continue with the amazing music worship, keep Father Callen forever,	12/4/2022 5:26 PM
110	To see our children and youth programs continue to grow Have more young adult leadership	12/4/2022 3:11 PM
111	We focus so much on righting injustices, I think this is relevant and energizing to younger generations. I love the young adult ministry. As someone who lives 5 hours away, livestream has been wonderful for me to stay connected.	12/4/2022 11:16 AM
112	Our church becomes a place where youth feel welcome, comfortable, and able to influence the future of the church. We celebrate our history and heritage but are also open to new ways of worshiping and serving God and serving our community.	12/4/2022 6:26 AM
113	Become more multi-generational -- more young families, single parents, young adults. Become more diverse -- we are still too white. Recruit young visionaries and elevate them to leadership roles. Engage the talent in our church to make the church more of a central hub for their life as well as worship.	12/3/2022 12:33 PM
